Eight and a half millions of dollars were embezzled from corporations, firms and individuals in the United States during the past year. Of this crop Canada harvested three-fifths of the rogues, the remainder being divided between Mexico and Europe. The chief significance of this new addition to the statistics of the year is that April is conspicuously the boodle month.

Language is hardly strong enough to express my admiration of the merits of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It is the best remedy for croup and whooping cough I have ever used. During the past eighteen years I have tried nearly all the prominent cough medicines on the market but say, and with pleasure too, that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is the best of all. Another Debate.

The Carson High School Debating Club will hold its second regular meeting, Friday, January 10th, in Mr. Howe's room, central school building. The subject for debate is: "Are tools more advantageous to man than domestic animals?" The public is cordially invited to attend. CARRIE BELKNAP, Secretary.

They Wanted the Sheriff.

The Reno Journal has the following:

The Grand Jury completed their work early yesterday morning, and while waiting for the District Judge concluded to have a little fun at the expense of the Sheriff. The bell was rung and Deputy Hayes answered the call, but was gravely informed by the foreman that the Deputy would not answer; they wanted the Sheriff. A messenger was dispatched for Sheriff Flint.

In a few moments the Sheriff appeared before the Jury and inquired as to what was wanted of him, when he was gravely informed by the foreman that the Jury had discovered in the Court-room an organ and all the sacred books and paraphernalia of a first class church, and desired him to explain why these apparently sectarian implements were displayed in a public building. A photograph of the Sheriff at that moment, when he seemed struggling for an answer would have been the only physical way of describing the situation. The Sheriff informed the Jury of misfortune of the Baptist Association in having their church burned, and that the property belonged to them, and was stored in the Court-room awaiting the completion of their new church. This explanation did not seem to be satisfactory, and several jurymen expressed their disapprobation of using a public building for sectarian purposes, but before the speaking had proceeded for the Sheriff "tumbled" to the racket and gracefully withdrew amid an outburst of applause from the whole Jury.

Helen Blythe.

It is a great pity that Miss Blythe did not reach Carson in better weather. The bitter cold kept numbers of old theatre goers away that would gladly have embraced the opportunity to see so good an actress. She made a pronounced and legitimate hit. Miss Blythe is an artist in the truest sense of the word. Many with greater names do not possess half the ability of this lady. It is a very easy matter for the observer to notice that Miss Blythe has been educated in a splendid school. Her methods are perfect. Every climax is reached by the most legitimate means and without rant. Her emotion is admirably portrayed and is so perfectly natural that her audience weeps with her and shares the burden of her sorrows in the womanly sacrifices that she made for her child. Dame nature has been bountiful to Miss Blythe and given her a magnificent physique and the Manager has given her an excellent support. If Miss Blythe will come here in warmer weather she will be welcomed by a large audience.

The Corpse Thrown Out.

Hi Low, the Chinaman whose death was recorded in last week's Bulletin, was buried on Thursday. Napoleon Bonaparte Prime was employed to convey the remains to the cemetery. After the coffin had been placed in the wagon and just as the funeral procession was about to move, somebody touched off a bunch of firecrackers near Prime's team. The horses dashed furiously across lots until the wagon struck against a post near Noland's house. The coffin and its occupant was thrown violently to the ground while the horses kept running. After some delay a stretcher was procured and a number of Indians were hired to convey the remains to the cemetery. Prime's wagon was badly used up, and the Chinaman refused to pay his bill for carting the remains. He threatens to sue for his money. Mr. Prime replied: "Franchise he foelce me; he no good; all same Irish. Heil!" —Walker Lake Bulletin.

Cough! and Cough! and Cough!!

What in the world is the reason you will cough and keep coughing and still keep trying inferior medicines when BEGG'S' CHERRY COUGH SYRUP will positively relieve your cough at once? This is no advertising scheme, but an actual fact, and we guarantee it. W. H. Chedie, Druggist.

To Whom it May Concern.

Notice is hereby given that I will pay no debts contracted by W. J. Bryan unless accompanied by a written order signed by E. BRYAN.

For Rent.

Two furnished rooms, Cor. Musser and Placer streets, immediately opposite the Capitol. Apply on premises. Rent cheap.

How Can Parents

allow their children to cough and strain and cough and calmly say: "Oh! it's only a little cold," and keep giving them cheap and dangerous medicines, until they are down with lung fever or consumption, when they can be so easily relieved by BEGG'S' CHERRY COUGH SYRUP? It has no superior and few equals. W. H. Chedie, Druggist.

What on Earth

is the reason people will not, cannot, or do not see any difference in cheap nos trums put up by Cheap John houses or irresponsible parties at enormous profits, rather than take a medicine of world wide reputation and one that is giving universal satisfaction at equal price? No medicine in the world is giving such unparalleled satisfaction for purifying the blood as BEGG'S' BLOOD PURIFIER & BLOOD MAKER, and every bottle that does not do its work, will cost you nothing. W. H. Chedie, Druggist

Mr. W. H. Baldrige, druggist Escudido, California, says: Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is the best selling medicine I handle. In fact I sell more of it than all other cough medicines combined. Every one who has used it speaks in glowing terms of its efficiency. For sale by G. C. Thaxter.
